

Irish Heritage

Promoting young Irish musicians and Irish composers

OCTOBER NEWSLETTER

2nd October 2014

Dear Friends and Supporters,

We are starting a new season with a lot of optimism and enthusiasm on the future direction of Irish Heritage. Much work has been undertaken by the committee over the summer months to reinvigorate Irish Heritage and to focus on the areas of arts and culture that have made us so successful in the past and have much to offer to you and to the wider public in the future. You will be hearing more about our future plans and seeing a new face of Irish Heritage in the coming weeks and months.

We will formally launch the Irish Heritage event programme for 2014-2015 on Wednesday 8th October in Europe House, Smith Square, with a reception at 6.30 pm and guest speaker, Michael Dervan, Music Critic of The Irish Times (in association with The Irish Times). This is a Friends, guests and artists occasion and if you have not responded to your invitation, please do so as soon as possible. There are a few places still available if you wish to join us, but please e-mail the undersigned by 5th October if you would like to come along.

Our November event on Thursday 13th is a continuation of the very popular series, Classic Meets Folk, in the Bolivar Hall, 54 Grafton Way, London W1T 5DL. It features Fionnuala Moynihan (piano) and Donncha Moynihan (guitar). Fionnuala, who performed with Irish Heritage in Leighton House (with Norah King, soprano – see below) some years ago, is a member of a highly talented musical family from Cork and has a huge range of musical interests – from Haydn and Mozart to Traditional Irish Music. Her brother Donncha is a successful guitarist and producer, and has performed and recorded folk and traditional music with other members of the Moynihan family. Further details will follow and tickets will go on sale next week through our website www.irishheritage.co.uk and from Kathy O'Regan. Tel. 020 7226 4578 Email: Kathy.oregan@hotmail.co.uk
